Re: BSGR v. Soros, et al.

Dear Counsel:

We write to follow up on a discussion last week as well as Jim's email to me of May 11, 2017 concerning Defendant Open Society Foundations ("OSF") and its participation in this lawsuit. Ben apparently told my colleague, Nancy Savitt, that you were taking the position that OSF is not a juridical entity, and you mentioned the Open Society Institute as the party that we might have meant to sue. Thereafter, in your email of May 11, which says that in your view the entity did no wrong and so isn't a proper party, doesn't really move the ball forward from our perspective.

The wrongdoing is detailed in the complaint. We believed that OSF is the correct entity who took the relevant actions described therein. We allege that OSF and other entities are controlled directly or indirectly by Defendant Soros and participated in the wrongdoing by, among other things, funding. We are more interested at this point in the funding sources, direct or indirect, and we believe that OSF is at least one of the proper parties.

We request that you set forth for us now why you believe OSF is not a juridical entity. If it is a matter of substituting and/or adding other Open Society entities like the Open Society Institute, the Foundation to Promote Open Society, the Open Society Policy Center, and/or the Alliance for Open Society International, we can do so now rather than wasting the parties' and the Court's resources fighting about the issue and then making that change. You could still preserve your rights and objections to dismiss.

If all you are going to do is repeat your email of May 11, there is no need. You will make that argument to the Court, and we will respond.

Please let us know your response.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Louis M. Solomon".
